

City of Richwood Social Media Disclaimer

The City of Richwood's social media pages are designed to be limited public forums and should only be used to share specific information regarding special events, programs, construction, and other related news.

The City of Richwood is not responsible for the content nor endorses any site which has a link from the City's social media accounts. All content, comments, and replies posted to any of the City's social media accounts are subject to the Freedom of Information Act and the Texas Public Information Act and may be considered the property of the public and subject to open record requests.

All content posted to the City's social media accounts will be monitored. If any content contains the following items, the City reserves the right to delete the content and/or to block the user responsible for posting the content:

- a. Content that is not topically related to the site or article being commented upon;
- b. Profane language or obscene content;
- c. Personal attacks, insults, or threatening language;
- d. Content that promotes, fosters or perpetuates discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, national origin, physical or mental disability, or sexual orientation;
- e. Content that violates a copyright or trademark;
- f. Content that violates any Federal, State, or Local law.