City of Richwood, Texas
Rich in History, Focused on the Future
Chief of Police

THE COMMUNITY

Located in southern Brazoria County, the City of Richwood is surrounded by Texas history and is built on land that was part of Stephen F. Austin's original land grant from the Mexican government.

The City serves an area of approximately five square miles and has an estimated population between 5,500 and 6,000. Richwood is located in Brazoria County, 52 miles south of Houston, and approximately 16 miles from the Gulf Coast.

From its humble beginnings in 1957 to its present evolvement, Richwood has been a people-oriented community. In the highly competitive marketplace of economic development, Richwood has shined in its greatest commodity - its people.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Chief of Police, Bryan Corb, is retiring after serving in the law enforcement profession for over 28 years and leading the Richwood Police Department since November 2014.

Including the Chief of Police, the department has nine full-time sworn peace officer positions and one part-time warrant officer. The annual operating budget is approximately $920,000.

Additionally, Richwood voters have authorized a Crime Control and Prevention District (CCPD). The CCPD contributes approximately $100,000 annually to the department's budget funding the part-time warrant officer and equipment needs.

Additionally, the department is working on attaining its accreditation from the Texas Police Chiefs’ Association Texas Law Enforcement. The department’s final evaluation is scheduled for the end of April 2018.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

- A leader who focuses on community-oriented policing and providing great customer service.
- An active and engaging ambassador for the City of Richwood that will build upon the Police Department’s strong relationships with our local businesses and schools.
- A public servant who makes thoughtful and data-driven decisions.
- A leader that is dedicated to the principles of transparency.

THE PROCESS

This position will remain open until filled. Qualified candidates should download an employment application from our website, http://richwoodtx.gov. Applications, resumes, and cover letters should be submitted to the City Secretary, Giani Cantu at gcantu@richwoodtx.gov.

Staff will start reviewing any applications as they come in. Depending on the number of qualified applicants, staff may conduct brief phone interviews with the candidates before scheduling interviews with the review board. It is anticipated that the review board will conduct their interviews starting in late May. The City Council will then interview any finalists at the regularly scheduled Council Meeting on Monday, June 11th.

For more information, please contact the City Manager, Michael Coon. He can be reached by phone at (979) 265-2082 or by email at mcoon@richwoodtx.gov.
